Local-Self Government Department,
BANGALORE.

Sir,

THROUGH THE DEPUTY COMMISSIONER OF MYSORE DISTRICT.

SUBJECT :—

I have the honor to state that Messrs. K.C. Subbanna and P. Subbanna, Members of the District Board brought a proposition for establishing a shandy at Bombalapur village, Hangala Hobli, Gundlupet Taluk at the District Board meeting held on 30th July 1936 and the Board passed the resolution No.48(234) dated 29/30-7-1936 to the effect that the shandy may be started after the objections are called for.

2. Accordingly notification was published in the Mysore Gazette dated 29th August 1936 inviting objections and copies thereof widely published and circulated through the Amildar of the Taluk and the Sanitary Inspector of the Range.

3. Only one objection petition has so far been received from the villagers of Hangala stating that the shandy be opened in their village instead of Bombalapura as the latter village has no easy means of communication and the establishment of shandy in their village would facilitate nearly 20 or 25 villages surrounding it.

4. This

4. This subject with the objection petition was once again placed before the District Board at the meeting held on 15th July 1937. The Board have now resolved that the shandy be opened at Bombalapura and the question of levy of fees be considered after the shandy has developed.

5. I therefore request that the sanction of Government to hold the shandy at Bomblapura, Hangala Hobli, Gundlupet Taluk on every Wednesday may kindly be obtained.

6. A copy of the resolution No.56 dated 15-7-1937 is emclosed for reference.

I have the honor to be,

S i r ,

Your most obedient servant,

DISTRICT BOARD OF MYSORE.
